

Colorado Kennel Club
An AKC Member Club

Presents

A Free

Junior Showmanship
Day Camp

There is something for everyone to learn. Everyone is Welcome!

Where: Adams County Fairgrounds
When: October 29, 2005 at the Indoor Arena
Time: 8am to 4:30pm
Cost is Free to Juniors Including Lunch and Snacks

Marie Hargraves will serve Free lunch to Juniors. Parents and others may purchase their lunch from Marie.

There will be many sessions with and without your dog. Crate space is available. Multiple session by: Judges, exhibitors, professional handlers, and past juniors.

RSVP @ stanfieldT@aol.com
@

Or by sending your :

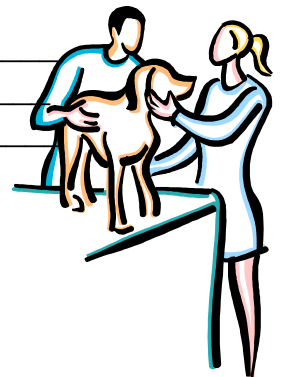

Name _____ Age _____ Breed of Dog _____

Address _____

City, State, Zip _____

To:

CKC - Junior Camp
12920 Hayesmount
Commerce City, CO 80022

A public service by CKC for the experienced and inexperienced Junior.

Format for Junior Seminars

Break between each presenter

Juice and donuts at 10am

Lunch at 12 pm

Match at 2:30pm

Introduction for Juniors Without Dogs

- A. Welcome to the Sport of Queens
- B. Preparing to Show Juniors.
 - i. Getting a number and rule book
 - ii. Filling our an entry
- C. AKC Rule Book Highlights
- D. Choosing an appropriate dog to show
 - i. Training you dog to show
 - ii. Grooming your dog
 - iii. Choosing a lead
 - iv. Caring for your dog
- E. Choosing your “show outfit”
 - i. Why is it important to dress for success
 - ii. Where to get your suit
- F. Choosing proper foot ware
 - i. Why we never, never show in all white shoes

How does the show ring work? With Dogs

- A. Presenting your chosen breed
- B. Showing a table breed
 - 1. How and where to put your dog and why
- C. Presenting your floor breed
 - 1. Which pose do you use for your breed and why
- D. Examination of the dog
 - 1. The Stand for Exam
 - 2. Showing the mouth or having the judge examine
 - 3. What do you do if the judge asks you to do something that is not correct for your breed?
 - 4. What is the judge looking for in your dog?
 - i. Cleanliness
 - ii. Training
 - iii. Presentation
 - iv. Breed type grooming by the standard
 - v. What is a standard?
 - vi. Show patterns approved by AKC
- G. Demonstrate the patterns
- H. What is a courtesy turn and why are they used?
- I. What if the judge asks you to do a different pattern?

Judges and Judging Without Dogs

- A. How does a dog club choose a judge?
- B. How does the judge get their training
- C. What does an AKC Judge judge you on?
- D. How does the judge know what breeds are going to be shown?
- E. How does the judge know how to judge each breed?
- F. What is “show attitude” and exuding confidence?
- G. Now that you have won – What now?
- H. What should your goals in Juniors be?
 - a. Westminster
 - b. Sunflower Classic
 - c. AKC scholarships
 - d.

Working to get your “Junior Team” set to show With Dogs Working for Success and having fun doing it.

- I. Showing that you are having fun
- J. Sportsmanship at all times
- K. What not to do in Juniors
 - a. 1950’s theatrics
 - b. Be a poor sport
 - c. Criticize others
 - d. Bring attention to your self
 - e. Don’t be mad at the judge for not putting you up

Juniors Match