Preparing for Your Podcast

1. Come up with a creative title for your podcast that you will share with listeners.

2. Before recording, plan out your podcast and how you will structure it below.
 - How will you effectively include all the important information about your historic dog?
 - How will you engage your listeners?
 - Different voices?
 - Interview Style?
 - Storytelling?
 - News Anchor Style?
 - Create Your Own Sound Effects?

Create Your Podcast

1. After planning out how you will structure your podcast, run through 3-5 practice versions with your partner prior to recording. This way you do not have to edit as often.

2. After practicing, you can start recording! Ensure you have the necessary materials, including the Anchor app downloaded or Audio Recorder ready.

3. Make the necessary edits to ensure you have a successful finished product.

4. Share your finished podcast with the class!
